There is a certain affinity of spirit and sentiment toward language; a common devotion to the manner of expression; a heady delight in the hypnotic rhythm of the music of speech and a deep awareness of the mystical elements that permeate the landscape of mist and mountain, desert and moonlit night.
You gather up your garment lest the water should wet it; you must dive a thousand times into the sea. Thousands of uproars fell upon the skies because of these, there hundreds of thousands of Kai-Qubads were fallen prostrate.

PaoloDiPaoloter. The whole creation is beneath Thy sway. Every herb is a token of water; what is there that is not tributary to that? These words are but to remind of us For else, no permanence is traced in life.
