Carmen, And if you had contacted him personally, I guarantee you he would have given you that advice first hand and then also given you the name of some editors or agents to send your MS to. The questions remain around the ones that may have given the orders, and the reasons behind. Silva is forced to work both cases, but he considers the act of a terrorism a bigger threat, particularly after another bomb goes off in Argentina, a bomb made of the same components as the one in Brazil.

produces a literary hat trick with Perfect Hatred, the sixth novel in his acclaimed and award-winning Chief Inspector Mario Silva Investigations, set mostly in Brazil, where Leighton now makes his home. All with the attendant high numbers of innocent victims, including, in Buenos Aires, the Israeli ambassador to Argentina, his wife and two children.
