In making this move, however, Milbank is not arguing for the objective truth of Christianity, but simply trying to show that Christianity is psychologically appealing and aesthetically attractive. This is a fine achievement.

GetACopy. He can cast a self-critical eye over the movement, particularly in its doctrines of sin and grace. Log In to sync your basket across devices. Endorsements "Most interpreters seem to be captive to their particular discipline--either they are theologians not well-versed in philosophy, or they are philosophers who use theology ironically or do not take theology seriously.
