It sounds so shadowy and impalpable, but it is really built up with as sure control as the most classic work. In Yasmin was invited to perform a private recital to Her Royal Highness Princess Wijdan Ali, and was awarded a full scholarship towards her musical education.

father, a wheelwright, played the harp but could not read music. The texts are full of recurrent themes such as the melding of a perfect intellectual and physical love In the first song: "This deploring soul is ours, isn't it?"
