I didn't have very high hopes for this book. Raising Kelley, her teenage sister, and dealing with PTSD, manifesting as nightmares and other problems, including alcoholism, Danny has to deal with a zombie invasion from out of LA on the same day

Kelley steals Danny's precious vintage Mustang and takes off. The priest, or Bocor, would then perform the proper ceremony, visit the home. What is clear is that those attacked by zombies eventually and inevitably die from their wounds, and they soon rise from the dead as cannibalistic ghouls themselves. I didn't have very high hopes for this book.

Sarah tries not to worry about all this, but Nicole—ever the sharp reporter—p H. Kyle has learned of a group of survivors in Australia living in an old military installation called The Rock.
