When Action Analysis for Animators had his own animation studio in London, Williams brought several of these animation masters over to work for him and to serve as artists-in-residence for him and his staff. Even so, you have the acting genes in you and animation is your way of being able to share your performances with the world without ever having to step in front of the camera. However, in most cases we don't have to bring in live models.

The disc also has a few clips of White explaining the differences and techniques.

Another great clip of reference is from Sleeping Beauty with Marc Davis and Milt Kahl drawing at the boards and doing studies of the hands, poses and dress movements of the actress. No, cancel Yes, report it Thanks!
