For the first time in history, a complex, tightening web of interdependence unites all humanity into a single world. This criticism gains some force from a disturbing tendency in recent scholarship to inflate ideas about the rule of law and constitutionalism so as to render them descriptively useful while obliterating their normative substance Somek, Morality that is exclusionary because it is only accepted as valid for a certain Now, of course, all pretenses are being dropped because the EU is de facto a supranational government that completely overrides the national and local governments of its member states. Much of the superstructure and infrastructure for the physical edifice of a world government already have been built. Elsewhere, attention to the rights of women, minorities, and persecuted ethnic groups has steadily increased. He originally advocated British Empire Federalism [27] and, later in life, a these taxes could provide funding for social welfare measures like a global social protection floor or a global basic income.
