Women are inherently hysterical because they have a uterus which makes them

Many of the articles look like something I could have written back in high school. If a man strings more than four polysyllabic words together, it is a wedding toast, a eulogy or lie explaining where he has been—and he probably got it from Google. What should I do?? The problem with this topic is it usually comes across as a "must have" or "dealbreaker" list most people cannot meet, even if you just intend it as "nice-to-have" guidelines.
