The sacristan to whom they addressed themselves, told them politely that it was impossible to oblige them, as the winter had stripped the orange trees of their fruit and even their leaves; to remove all their doubts he took them to the orangery, and examined the trees, to see if any might be on the branches, but the search was fruitless. I made it to the church and started to pray. The day was far advanced, and High Mass had already been commenced, yet though they sought Benedict all over the convent, to urge him to hasten with the dinner, they could not find .
