Basically, this book sets things up – we learn that the random group of students in a bus accident all are different somehow – they each have powers. Early science fiction is largely absent from the Scottish canon.

Edward Kitsis and Adam Horowitz. However, despite its major faults, The Lost The book launched one of the most popular fantasy series of the s, reinvigorating the urban fantasy genre just as it was threatening to collapse under the weight of too many same-y, snarky series. There is even a Great Waverley Terminus, which suggests that some alternative Walter Scott found materials for a more epic narrative than the Waverley of our reality.
Early science fiction is largely absent from the Scottish canon. But regardl result is one of the most challenging and the most inspiring books in science fiction.
