Tozer calls "the awareness of His presence. As a youth, Fraser loved outdoor activity and developed unusual stamina by walking long distances, cycling around England, and mountain-climbing in Switzerland during summer vacation. And now a strange thing happened.

People are talking and I can't bear that you should not know. Living in the wilds as he had done, he had grown very indifferent to dress which to his great amusement he had to change a little after marriage! Fraser passed away after a very short illness in China in the midst of his work. He began to correspond with them about what he was learning about prayer.

The atmosphere was charged with the presence of the One whom I was learning to know. It is right for me to stay on, waiting and praying when workers are urgently needed in more fruitful fields. There are no discussion topics on this book .
